Governor Sends Troops To Halt Hillsdale Riots

Romney Vetoes Road Refund For Utilities

LANSING (AP)—Gov. George W. Romney set off a new fight with an old political foe Wednesday when he vetoed a bill to reimburse private utilities for costs of relocating facilities displaced by Federal highway projects.

Highway Commissioner John Mackie said he agreed with the veto, but objected to claims by Romney that he had once supported the bill and later changed his mind.

In a message sending the bill back to the Senate, Romney said approval would have furthered "inconsistent policies" by Mackie's department.

The bill would have cost the state an estimated $600,000 between now and the end of the current Federal Interstate Highway program in 1972.

The full cost of the plan was estimated at $6 million but the Federal Government would have paid 90 per cent of the total.

"Unfair To Public"

Sponsored by Sen. Haskell Nichols, R-Jackson, the bill passed the Senate 28-3 and the House 58-34. Votes in both chambers were mixed.

The legislation was the subject of extensive lobbying by several private utility companies.

Michigan Bell Telephone Co. charged Romney Wednesday with "needlessly perpetuating an inequity" in his veto.

Michigan Bell, a supporter of the legislation, said the veto was unfair to the "rate-paying public."

"The veto," Michigan Bell said, "means that the utility customer must continue to shoulder a double expense in the cost of relocating utility lines in connection with interstate highway construction."

Mackie Opposes Bill

Romney said he was concerned that the bill might set precedent by which utilities might ultimately be repaid for relocations resulting from other than interstate projects.

"Such extension would severely and seriously curtail the road-building program of not only the state but of local units of government as well," he said.

Romney aides said the Democratic highway commissioner was referred to in the March 21 edition of a contractors' publication as having "no objections" to the bill.

In addition, they said, a highway department official had registered no objections in March 4 testimony before a Senate Committee.

But in a letter received by Romney's office May 22, in response to an inquiry from Romney after the bill passed, Mackie stated he opposed the legislation and recommended it be vetoed.

"Such inconsistencies are difficult to reconcile," said Romney.

A spokesman for Mackie said Romney was "not giving all the facts" and stated that two highway department officials had testified in legislative committees.

He said one, director of administration Fred Tripp, took no position on the bill but the other, deputy commissioner Howard Hill, had been "vehement" in opposing it.

The women—who refused to give their names—picketed Chesapeake & Ohio trains and delayed the departure of one. One demonstrator threw herself on the tracks to stop a slow-moving outbound mail train, but was dragged off by police.

She fainted and was taken to Lansing's Edward Sparrow Hospital where she was treated for "hysteria" and released. The hospital identified her as Mrs. Joyce Langford, 29, of Grand Rapids.

The placard-carrying women scuffled briefly with police, but later agreed to confine their demonstration to peaceful sidewalk picketing.

They said they plan to demonstrate in other Michigan cities, but declined to specify which ones. They were objecting to the new work rules contained in a recently negotiated labor contract and to a permanent injunction by a U.S. District Court against strikes or work stoppages by members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers and all persons "acting in concert with them."

California May Decide For GOP

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Gov. Mark O. Hatfield of Oregon, keynote speaker at the Republican National Convention in July, says Oregon's delegates will stay with Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York as long as he gets 35 per cent of the votes in early balloting.

Rockefeller won Oregon's primary election. The state has 18 votes in the convention.

Hatfield told a news conference Wednesday that if Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona wins the California primary next Tuesday, "he will be nominated (for president) on the first ballot."

If Rockefeller wins in California, Hatfield said, "it will set up a wide-open convention" with potential strength for Gov. William W. Scranton of Pennsylvania and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

Nations Worried By Situation In Southeast Asia

LONDON (AP)—Asst. Secretary of State William P. Bundy said today there is a real danger of a Communist takeover in Southeast Asia.

As Bundy flew in from Washington for London talks on the Asian crisis, the British government rejected a Soviet charge that U.S. reconnaissance flights over Laos violated Laos' neutrality. The Soviet note to Britain warned that the U.S. flights could aggravate the situation throughout Southeast Asia.

Bundy, assistant secretary for Far Eastern affairs, told newsmen the threat of a Communist takeover "is a matter we all have been watching with great concern."

Asked how stability and neutrality for Laos could be achieved without force, he replied, "That is a very difficult question to answer and it is one of the things we must talk about."

Bundy was meeting with Foreign Secretary Richard A. Butler for the first of several days of talks on Laos, Cambodia and Viet Nam.

The British Foreign Office, in a sharp rebuke of the Russians, dismissed the Soviet note on the U.S. flights as "purely propagandistic" and said it "totally misrepresents the true position in Laos."

The Soviet note said the United States was "embarking on this dangerous road of an open violation of the Geneva agreements" and "assumes grave responsibility for all consequences following from this."

The Russians also accused the United States of trying to involve the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization in "its dangerous plans for Laos."

She was reported out of danger afterward but still on the critical list, Rich said.

Throngs Follow Nehru's Body To Funeral Pyre

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru's body was committed to the flames of a funeral pyre today in an ancient Hindu ceremony watched by hundreds of thousands of mourners on the banks of the sacred Jumna River.

Ending an era, Nehru's 17-year-old grandson Sanjaya Gandhi touched a torch to the huge pile of sandalwood on which the prime minister's body lay.

Police had to beat back crowds with clubs when the gun carriage bearing Nehru's body approached the cremation site after a funeral procession through the city. Thousands of shuffling feet sent up a dust cloud that obscured even the towering walls of the nearby Red Fort.

Stampede Kills Two

Military officers lifted Nehru's body to their shoulders, walked along a freshly laid carpet of red earth spread to the pyre and then up seven steps to the sandalwood resting place.

Frenzied mourners shouted "Nehru! Nehru!"

Even before the procession started from the prime minister's official residence, a stampede among the crowd outside killed two persons and injured six.

The gun carriage was halted repeatedly by the vast throng of mourners. Foreign statesmen and dignitaries riding in cars behind were prevented from following closely.

Uncounted hundreds of thousands jammed the city shouting, crying and throwing flower petals at the body wrapped in India's tricolor flag and lying atop the gun carriage.

Jam Delays Rusk

The crowd was so thick and the procession so chaotic that U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk, who arrived from Washington after the funeral march started, could not join the procession. He spent two hours at

"Nehru! Nehru!" thousands screamed, drowning out the funeral drums.

Although Nehru was an agnostic, the ritual of Hinduism—the majority religion of India—was to be followed strictly.

Nehru's grandson, Sanjaya Gandhi, 17, was to light the pyre near the spot where Mohandas K. Gandhi, Nehru's leader in years of campaigning for independence from Britain, was cremated after a Hindu fanatic assassinated him in January 1948.

Premiers and foreign ministers, diplomats and military chiefs headed for New Delhi within hours after they received the word that Nehru had died Wednesday of a heart attack.

Rusk Arrives

British Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home and Admiral of the Fleet Earl Mountbatten arrived in Delhi.

Asked how stability and neutrality for Laos could be achieved without force, he replied, "That is a very difficult question to answer and it is one of the things we must talk about."

Picket Arrests Protested By Crowd Of 300

HILLSDALE (AP)—Gov. George W. Romney, responding to a plea for help from the city's mayor, today declared "a state of public emergency" in strike-torn Hillsdale.

Romney ordered 230 National Guardsmen from three units to the area after a night of violence in which some 300 rock-throwing demonstrators virtually stormed the Hillsdale jail. The mob was protesting arrest of three pickets.

The governor also ordered the strike-plagued Essex Wire Co. plant here shut down, except for skeleton maintenance crews, for an indefinite period.

No Guns Allowed

Except for police officers and troops, Romney said no one will be permitted firearms in this city of 7,629 in southeastern lower Michigan.

A third part of the governor's order bars "picketing, demonstrations or public assemblage" in Hillsdale, but it leaves government in the hands of local officials.

Romney said Mayor C. Aubrey Paul of Hillsdale was informed of the order and "he has indicated informally it appears to him to be adequate."

Romney acted in Lansing after a telegraphic plea from Paul for martial law. Before hand, the governor conferred with State Police Commissioner Joseph Childs and Brig. Gen. Carson Neifert, assistant adjutant general of the Michigan National Guard.

Production Stopped

The governor said his order will remain in effect "as long as people and property are in danger" and that guards at the strike-bound plant will be disbanded.

He ordered production stopped and banned picketing.

"Without this action," Romney told newsmen, "there is a likelihood of violence of an unknown extent."

Sixty state policemen and sheriff's deputies from neighboring counties came to the aid of Hillsdale's seven-man police Wednesday night.

Police put out a plea for help when it appeared those who had followed the arrested pickets to jail might take it over and release those held.

The International Union of Electrical Workers walked out of Essex Wire three months ago today to support demands they were making in seeking a first contract at the plant.

Jail Windows Broken

The IUE displaced the Teamsters Union as bargaining agent in a National Labor Relations Board election and among its demands was one that Essex meet here wages it pays in Indiana plants. The company conceded rates $2.43 an hour here were 40 to 60 cents below the Indiana average.

In summing up last night's violence, Romney said at Lansing: "Two felony arrests, two misdemeanor arrests and a juvenile arrest were made. This was at a time when a shot was fired near a large crowd of people near the Essex Wire plant."

"Later a crowd of 250 people could not be dispersed from in front of the jail until the lesser offenders were released on bond. State police in the radius of 100 miles, sheriff's officers from four counties and city police were unable to control the crowd."

Stoning and throwing of eggs, flattening of tires on police vehicles and broken windows in the county jail resulted."

The crowd finally dispersed as midnight approached.

Council Promises Action

The trouble began about 7 p.m. with the march of demonstrators to the jail from the strike scene at Essex Wire Corp.

The crowd was angered by the arrest of three persons, one of them a striker's wife. The demonstrators stoned the jail in protest and police began waving their nightsticks to restore order.

After about two hours, the crowd had become generally peaceful.

Relations With Russia Getting Better, Worse

WASHINGTON (AP)—Negotiations between the Soviet Union and the United States are beginning to run up an impressive list of successes. The latest is the new treaty to increase protection for American citizens in the Soviet Union and Soviet citizens in the United States.

Still, relations between Washington and Moscow in some ways are getting worse at the same time they are getting better. The future course of relations is unpredictable, and no one in either capital has any guarantees against the sudden eruption of a new and dangerous crisis.

Consulate In Chicago?

Agreement on the new treaty, formally known as a consular convention, was announced by President Johnson Wednesday. He emphasized that it was the first two-nation treaty between this country and the Soviet Union in the 31 years they have had diplomatic links. He expressed the hope that it would lead to a further improvement in relations.

The treaty provides for opening up consular offices in each country, in addition to the embassies in Washington and Moscow. How many offices will be opened and where they will be established are questions still to be negotiated.

The United States is reported interested in having a consulate in Leningrad, and the Soviet Union is understood to want a consulate in Chicago. Each country formerly had consulates in the other, but they were closed

Legislature Can Finish Election Struggle Today

LANSING (AP)—Gov. George W. Romney today signed the so-called "Massachusetts ballot" bill and cleared the way for legislative action to end confusion over Michigan's 1964 general election.

Romney signed the bill as part of an agreement in which Democrats, in return, would give immediate effect to a primary postponement bill.

He added, however, that if the approved version of the bill contains defects he "would not hesitate to call a special session of the legislature to correct them."

Petition Drive Planned

The ballot bill, which would abolish the straight party ticket method of voting and replace it with a ballot listing candidates by offices, is opposed by Democrats.

Although Democrats oppose the bill they wanted it acted on so they can start immediately on a petition drive to prevent it being used. They have 90 days to complete the campaign.

Leaders in both houses and both parties predicted a possible quick finish to the legislature's work for the year if the matter is cleared up today.

Printing Speeded Up

As the Democrats waited, the routine processing and printing of the ballot bill was stepped up to ensure its presentation to Romney today for his signature or veto.

House Minority Leader Joseph Kowalski, D-Detroit, said his party could insist that Romney act immediately on the ballot bill. He said this meant today.

If this happened, said Kowalski, "the Democrats would be inclined to go along" with immediate effect on the primary bill.

He stressed, however, the question still would have to be presented to a House caucus.

House Speaker Allison Green said Kowalski had given him no firm commitment on immediate effect for the primary bill, but "he said he saw no reason why, if this is settled, we couldn't be out of here by tonight."

Democrats object to the Massachusetts ballot because it eliminates the straight-party ticket. It lists candidates by office rather than by party.

Immediate Effect Sought

Under the constitution, they have 90 days from the legislature's adjournment in which to circulate and file petitions to put the issue before the voters on the November ballot—preventing its use in the 1964 general election.

At the other end of the seesaw, the primary bill appeared to set elections on Aug. 4 and Sept. 1, since it could not, in the normal legislative process, take effect until about three weeks after the presently scheduled August primary.

Immediate effect requires a two-thirds majority in both houses and therefore some Democratic votes along with those of the Republican majority would make the bill into law early enough to wipe out the first primary date.

The Senate recalled the primary bill, which it passed Friday, along with a Congressional redistricting bill, from the House late Wednesday.

Four Democrats reportedly had agreed to join 20 Republicans in approving immediate effect.

They were Sens. Charles Youngblood and Basil Brown of Detroit, Charles McNaughton, Houghton, and Philip Rahoi, Iron Mountain.

They were convinced in a Democratic caucus, however, to withhold their support until Democrats got action on the ballot bill.

Women Fight Railway Rules

LANSING (AP)—The picketing wives of eight Grand Rapids railroad men pledged Wednesday to go even farther in their fight against new railroad work rules and a court injunction against striking and work stoppage.

The women—who refused to give their names—picketed Chesapeake & Ohio trains and delayed the departure of one. One demonstrator threw herself on the tracks to stop a slow-moving outbound mail train, but was dragged off by police.

She fainted and was taken to Lansing's Edward Sparrow Hospital where she was treated for "hysteria" and released. The hospital identified her as Mrs. Joyce Langford, 29, of Grand Rapids.

At the same time, the council said the death toll of 13,350 for the first four months this year was 14 per cent higher than the previous record set in the same four months last year.

Necking Linked To Vandalism

The Rock Park vandalism case was solved by Gladstone State Police Wednesday and two Gladstone boys, both age 16, were sent to juvenile court to answer charges of vandalism.

Police investigation revealed that four Gladstone boys were seen with two Rock girls the night that the park was turned into a shambles.

The two older boys, 17 and 18, put the younger boys out of the car, investigators said, to do a little necking with the girls and the younger boys used the time of their expulsion to throw the picnic tables and fire barrels of the park into the swimming hole at the dam on the Days River.

Even more serious was the breaking of beer bottles into the pond so that its bottom will have to be cleared of broken glass before it can be used for swimming.

More Airline Service Sought By Peninsula

The Upper Peninsula Air Service Committee meeting in the State Office Building Wednesday afternoon agreed on a program of action seeking improved scheduled air service in the Upper Peninsula. City Attorney John Erickson of Escanaba presided at the session which decided to:

1. Hold an early meeting of city managers from cities with scheduled air service to authorized an action program.

2. Launch a study of Upper Peninsula air service and air service needs and possibilities by the Upper Peninsula Committee on Area Problems.

3. On the basis of the study and with the backing of the municipalities affected, to launch a program, in cooperation with the Michigan Department of Aeronautics, asking the Civil Aeronautics Board to authorize more air service to Upper Peninsula cities.

The meeting was called because of the tighter national policy on airline subsidy inaugurated by the Kennedy Administration.

indicated its concept of proper subsidy was a fair trial — at least a year — of air service to put it on a paying basis. It stressed that an economy in subsidy in a place like the Upper Peninsula where economic development is so strongly dependent upon transportation, could be erroneous public policy and should not be hastily ordered.

Waite said that the Upper Peninsula's chief hope of aid for airline service improvement in the U.P. at this time appears to be the reopening of the aerial bridge case. The U.P. has suffered loss of two major air services in the past year. It lost Segment 9 of North Central's service across the U.P. east-west between Duluth and Sault Ste. Marie, and it lost the aerial bridge over Lake Michigan between Escanaba and Traverse City.

The aerial bridge flight was authorized by CAB for a 5 year trial ending Dec. 1, 1965. It was suspended in December, 1963 because it was not meeting minimum boardings required by the subsidy plan.

Present Schedules

Mario Fontana of Iron Mountain, a member of the Michigan Aeronautics Commission, urged an Upper Peninsula study of air service and needs as a basis for presentation of a plan to CAB to substitute for the lost services and to bolster air service use in the U.P.

The present schedule of North Central service to U.P. cities provides the following number of round trips daily:

Marquette 3, Houghton 2, Escanaba 2, Menominee 2, Ironwood 2, Iron Mountain 3 and Sault Ste. Marie 3. All these flights are by Convair aircraft except the Ironwood flights and one to the Sault.

Convaers have 44 seats vs. 26 for DC3s and fly at 265 miles an hour compared with 160 mph for DC3s so North Central figures a Convair as a replacement for 2 1/2 DC3s. Thus it reasons that Escanaba now has more air service with 2 Convair round trip flights daily than it used to have with 3

DC3 flights, but, of course, it does not have the old frequency of service.

Cities joining the air service study will be asked to follow a uniform procedure in developing data for presentation to CAB with the request for more air service.

Also attending the conference: Dick Dunnebacke, Houghton; Gladstone Mayor Ray Norton; John Kevari, Ironwood airport manager; C. G. Sanderson, Sault Ste. Marie airport manager; Joseph Revis of UP CAP, Ken Dorman, Upper Michigan Tourist Association and Delta County Board Chairman Charles Sedenquist.

Farm Babies Visit School

What started out as a desire by a teacher, Mrs. Kathryn Nelson, to teach her children how to draw a rabbit ended in a visit by farm pets to the kindergarten class of Ford River.

While studying a farm unit the kindergarten class of Ford River was asked to draw a picture of a rabbit as part of their art in the unit. All of the pictures were drawn in the same manner with no imagination and little change in position or shape.

Mrs. Nelson obtained a live rabbit to serve as a model and the children's drawings improved tremendously because they were able to see exactly what they were trying to draw and didn't have to do it from memory or picture. The children liked the idea so much that a lamb-Billykins, a pig-Nu-Nu, a Duck-Bo Peep and a chicken were brought to class for the same purpose.

An added value of the farm animal visit was that many of the children, though living in a farming area, had never been in contact with baby farm animals and the experience of being able to feel, see and care for them was very good.

A third value derived from the farm unit was the studying of plants and the preparation of ground for planting. The kindergarten class now knows the various parts of plants and how seeds are planted and break through ground in their class garden.

Hartwig Honored By Federal Govt.

An Upper Peninsula agricultural economist is a member of a Michigan State University farm management section that recently won a unit citation from the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Rick Hartwig of Marquette and six fellow staff members won the award for their work in developing TELfarm, a farm management program for commercial farmers making use of modern electronic business machines.

The subscribing farmers send farm-operating information to East Lansing and periodically receive summaries and recommendations processed by the electronic business machines. Over 22 per cent of the Upper Peninsula commercial farmers have signed up for the service. The highest percentage signed up in other regions of the state is around seven per cent.

Tourist Query Boom For U.P.

The Upper Michigan Tourist Assn. is enjoying a bonanza of tourist inquiry mail in response to its current newspaper advertising campaign stressing the appeal of the Mackinac Bridge as well as other U. P. attractions.

Kenneth Dorman, manager of the UMTA, said in Escanaba Wednesday that letters of inquiry in response to the ads have been as numerous as 750 a day at the Marquette headquarters of UMTA. "This is quite a contrast to 1960 when we had no Upper Peninsula tourist promotion agency and the only inquiries that we got were those relayed by the State Tourist Council," said Dorman. "It should make quite a difference in U. P. summer travel business," he said.

The Association is spending

$65,000 on the series. There are four ads to be spaced 28 days apart and a fifth which stresses travel by way of the U.P. to the New York World Fair. The first ad ran in the New York Times Michigan Week supplement of May 18.

Dorman explained that the State Tourist Council is providing $20,000 of the $65,000 cost of the ad campaign and that the Mackinac Bridge Authority is also participating substantially for the benefit it will get from the bridge traffic generated.

The ads are 3 cols by 3 inches deep and their themes, besides the constant theme of the bridge, include pictures of Lake of the Clouds, the Soo Locks, Tahquamenon Falls and the Pictured Rocks.

The ads will appear in Muskegon, Saginaw, Lansing, Pontiac, Detroit Port Huron, Ann Arbor, Toledo, Chicago, Flint, Milwaukee, Cleveland, Minneapolis, St. Paul, Fort Wayne, Ind., Louisville, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, Springfield, Ill., Duluth, Madison and Columbus, O. The N. Y. Fair ad was also aimed at Calgary, Vancouver, Winnipeg, Seattle, Portland, Des Moines, Minneapolis and Duluth.

Frank M. Whiston

Whiston Heads Chicago Board

CHICAGO — Frank M. Whiston, 69, president of the real estate management firm bearing his name was elected president of the Chicago Board of Education Wednesday.

Whiston has been under pressure by his fellow board members to succeed Clair M. Rodewig for the one-year term as president.

Whiston is senior member of the school board, having served since 1948. For 16 years he has been chairman of the board's real estate and finance committee, which makes decisions on purchasing properties for new schools. He also is a close personal friend of School Supt. Benjamin C. Willis.

Last month, Whiston was appointed to head a five member committee to suggest ways of implementing the first three recommendations of the Hauser report of school integration.

These include a limited plan of open enrollment, optimum use of classroom space, and locating new schools, and redrawing school boundaries to foster integration.

Whiston was born in Escanaba, Mich., where he attended a Catholic elementary school and a public high school. He came to Chicago in 1919. He does not hold a college degree, but attended Loyola University evening school for three years.

He is assisted in his business by two sons, Robert and Jerome, who are vice presidents. In addition to managing buildings throughout the city, his firm also is in the real estate brokerage business and operates an insurance agency.

Bike Rider Is Hurt In Traffic Accident Here

John Diedrich, 9, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Diedrich of 309 S. 7th St., who was injured in a bicycle-auto accident about 5 p. m. Wednesday, is reported in "good" condition at St. Francis Hospital today.

John was riding on the rear seat of a two-seater bike steered by Bruce Dewar, 10, of 502 S. 7th St., when the accident occurred at 2nd Ave. S. and 11th St.

Dewar was unhurt, but John suffered a fractured left arm and a cut on the head. He was taken to the Hospital by the police patrol.

Police ticketed Gary W. Owens, 19, of 2115 24th Ave. S., driver of the car, for failing to yield the right of way to the bicycle.

Drop-Outs Pose City Problem

"Every four years our Escanaba schools lose one whole graduating class due to drop-outs," Tom Newport told the Better Hearing and Speech Society last night at the Chamber of Commerce Building. He is deeply concerned that 25 per cent of Escanaba's ninth graders do not graduate, matching the national average drop-out rate, he said.

Newport heads a Kiwanis Club committee of laymen who are working with school counselors, public service agencies, businessmen and others to reduce drop-outs. These men have worked with a group of 20 potential drop-outs and Newport based his report on experiences with these boys and girls.

"Take one hundred of these youngsters and you have one hundred problems," he said. Poor learners, bright children, those from broken homes, over-protected and neglected children make up some of the children in the group.

Newport described the excellent cooperation of local industry and union leaders in this effort. Harnischfeger Corp., the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. and Mead Corp. heads and union officers met with these boys and girls at different times and outlined their job requirements and said in each industry that only high school graduates are acceptable. In an automated society, adequate education is essential, it was stressed.

Six boys visited Marquette Prison with the Kiwanis counseling group. The boys talked with the prisoners and got first hand information on prison life, how a man becomes a prisoner, and how simply he could avoid it.

"The dropouts can be identified as early as the first grade," Newport said "and it is in these early years the future dropouts must be reached and saved."

Plans were completed for a picnic for families of members of the Better Hearing and Speech Society in Ludington Park July 1. Mrs. Louis Cretens heads the committee and other members are Mrs. Georgia Owens and Mrs. Carlton Mineau.

Regular monthly meetings have been suspended for the summer and will resume Wednesday, Sept. 23.

Cub Pack 445 Enjoys Program At Bark River

BARK RIVER — The Troop 45 Cub Pack meeting held Monday evening at the Bark River - Harris Elementary School. The program was presented by Den II and Den Mothers: Mesdames James Anderson and Frank Adams.

They were assisted by Den Chiefs Michael Anderson and Daniel Adams.

Participating were Philip Norman Jr.; Douglas Anderson, Mark Kleiman, Theodore Bash Jr., Bruce Bell, Joseph Knauf, Robert Simmons, Robert Teal, Michael LeBeau.

Contributions To Chips Welcomed

Mrs. Ernest Wickstrom of Burlington, Wash., (1612 Peterson Road) formerly of 612 S. 17th St., Escanaba, writes "We were quite amused to read the attached item in our home town newspaper here, the Skagit Valley Herald, since the recipient of the letter was a former resident of the Escanaba area, Mrs. Murray Watson, the former Pearl Jacobsen. She was the juror to whom it was addressed.

The article: "A prospective juror received this summons to Skagit Superior Court: 'Come a little early and sin up at the clerk's office.'"

"She discovered it was just a slight omission by the deputy clerk who typed her notice — forgetting the letter 'g' in 'sign up'."

Mrs. Wickstrom noted: "Incidentally subscribing to the Press is a good way to keep up on the happenings back home and we wouldn't miss it. We share it with the Gary Gouins."

 The article "Michigan's Thumb" by Stuart D. Gross of Saginaw in the spring issue of Michigan in Books, published by the Michigan State Library at Lansing, said "Near Cass City is the only place in Michigan, except Escanaba, where prehistoric Indian carvings are visible on rocks."

This is in error, as Delta County's (not Escanaba's) Indian "carvings" are really Indian paintings. They are at Burnt Bluff on the Garden Peninsula at a cave owned by Henry Lang.

The Burnt Bluff paintings, some of which were defaced years ago by protectors of girl campers because of a phallic symbol, and some of which have been defaced more recently by persons writing their names on them to compete with the prehistoric artists, have been subject to study by archaeologists. They're believed from the period 1000 to 500 B.C.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Heidemman of Hancock attended the University of Michigan commencement in Ann Arbor addressed by President Johnson and noted that the stadium, with a seating capacity of 100,000 had the bleachers in back of the President denied as seating. "Elaborate safety measures were taken to protect the President, including hundreds of state and local police and Secret Service men."

Heidemman, a director of the University of Michigan Alumni Association said its the biggest in the world with 210,000 members from Paris to Hong Kong and including the U.P., of course.

High School Art Is Wide Ranging

With the move into the new Escanaba Area Public High School art became a full time subject offering for the first time. Three beginning, one intermediate and one advanced class was offered.

The present trend in high school art is toward a wide range of creative art experiences for all classes with more creative work required in the advanced class.

Beginning students study lettering, drawing, basic design, graphics, watercolor and oil painting and 3-dimensional design. In the intermediate and advanced classes more of the same is covered with advanced work and a specialization in a particular technique or medium. Advanced students work fairly much on their own, experimenting with a wider range of applications of a certain medium and techniques in art media.

Included in the intermediate and advanced classes are some forms of pottery, ceramics, graphics, sculpture and a wider variety of painting media.

John Gustafson, the art instructor, is a man who practices what he preaches. He is a creative artist with several one-man shows, the most recent being an exhibit of 18 paintings in U. S. Senator Hart's offices in Washington, D. C. His pottery is made from reddish brown high-fire clay with glazes he mixes himself.

Student work is displayed almost continuously in the halls, show cases and library of the Senior High School.

Three File For School Post

STEPHENSON — The Board of Education of the Stephenson Consolidated School District has approved nomination petitions for Norman Dolsky, who filed for a four year term, Arthur E. Anderson, who filed for a four year term, and Frank Budmats who filed for the unexpired term of one year.

Two trustees will be elected for four year terms and one trustee for a one-year term at the annual school election to be held Monday, June 8.

Board of Canvassers
The Board of Education of the Stephenson Consolidated School District has appointed a Board of Canvassers to canvass all school elections. Howard Hubbard and Charles Donaldson Sr. have been appointed for terms ending Dec. 3, 1965. Joseph LaComb and Frank Ziel will serve for terms ending Dec. 31, 1967.

Voelker Head Of Department

STEPHENSON — The Board of Education of the Stephenson Consolidated School District appointed Robert Voelker as head of the Department of Social Studies at the Stephenson High School. Appointments are made of instructors who have had at least five years of teaching experience and who have demonstrated master teacher capabilities. Voelker will coordinate the activities of the Social Studies, make recommendations for the textbooks, assist other staff members in the Social Studies Department, encourage professional growth and keep the public and the board of education informed on the problems and progress of the Social Studies Department.

To School Staff
The Board of Education of the Stephenson Consolidated School District has appointed Richard Durov to serve as a custodian and bus driver for the Daggett Elementary School for the school year of 1964-65.

Apportionment Again

The Michigan legislative apportionment problem is rather easy to understand if you stay with it, like the farm boy who lifted the growing calf every day. But if you skip a few weeks of developments you may get so far behind events that it is no longer clear.

The new Michigan Constitution sets up a lower House of the legislature based on population alone. This means the number of House members (110) is divided into the population (about 8 million) to determine what the district factor should be in population. Then districts are created that conform as closely as possible to these factor hunks of population with the least possible violation of county lines.

There's no big dispute about the basic plan here, although there may be about the carving up of the districts because political parties always try to draw lines that get as many of their boys to Lansing as possible. This is an old political maneuver called gerrymandering.

But the Michigan Constitution provided for a State Senate apportionment based 80 per cent on population and 20 per cent on area. This is a compromise formula and not ideal, but it is quite fair in its recognition that there can be factors other than population which affect the voter franchise.

If, for instance, there were to be only one state senatorial district in the entire Upper Peninsula because the population formula worked out that way, Upper Peninsula voters would be seriously disfranchised by such apportionment. The area is so huge that it would spread the senator's services so thin they would be dangerously anemic.

The Democrats and particularly the labor elements of the Michigan Democratic party have adopted a "one man, one vote" formula for apportionment. It sounds catchy and is not bad, but it serves the purposes of the Democratic-Labor coalition in Michigan better than it does the cause of equitable apportionment of the Legislature.

Such a formula, for instance, would not make allowance for the Upper Peninsula's larger-than-state-average number of older persons, and hence its larger than state percentage of voters in proportion to population, nor the fact that it turns out a larger percentage of its voters than some other areas.

America's tradition of popular representation in government has never excluded considerations of area, sovereignty and other elements in apportionment. Where we have bicameral (two houses) legislation, as in the Federal Congress we have always had the lower house elected on a basis of population and the upper house (Senate) elected to represent the sovereignty of the state. Thus Nevada, which has population enough for only one U.S. Congressman, sends two U.S. Senators to Washington.

The Michigan Democrats are right in insisting that population should be the strongest factor in apportionment. The Republicans should be as insistent upon support of this principle. But practically the emphasis for "one man, one vote" comes from the Democrats' efforts to crack the Republican majority in the Michigan Legislature.

The majority takes some strength from a hangover of the old order of things in Michigan when most of the voters lived in the country and not in big cities. The trend of big city increasing population has been accompanied by a gain in Democratic strength in big cities, as representing urban demands upon government for services and as opposed to rural conservatism that tends to curb government spending.

If the Democrats can get a "one man, one vote" apportionment of the Michigan Senate as well as the Michigan House, they expect to win more senate seats in big city districts. That's what the shooting is about.

Democrats Otis Smith and Paul Adams of the Michigan Supreme Court went along with the Republican justices of the court in approving the Republican plan of apportionment. They said they weren't judging its conformity to the "equal protection" clause of the U.S. Constitution, but that they were impressed that if Michigan is to hold an election this fall it must have the means of electing. That calls for legal districts.

Michigan now faces the necessity of adopting an apportionment plan and setting up its elections in timely manner.

The Doctor Says:

Tennis Also Strenuous

By Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt.

Tennis, anyone? Whether you answer yes or no should depend on your general physical fitness. Tennis, you see, is a strenuous game.

If you are over 40 there is no reason why you should not still enjoy this game if you take pains to build up your fitness by observing a few basic principles.

Like handball and badminton, tennis is a game in which sudden bursts of energy accompanied by quick movements are alternated with periods of rest. For the improperly conditioned player these short spurts often result in sprained ankles, twisted knees, torn calf muscles, shoulder and wrist injuries and tennis elbow.

It is advisable, therefore to spend six or eight weeks before the season in walking, skipping rope and general calisthenics. When you finally step out onto the court ready to go, you should spend 15 or 20 minutes in a leisurely warm-up volley.

Avoid joint injuries by perfecting the technique of following through on each stroke and leave the violent cuts and smashes to the professionals. Learn to let the out-of-reach shots go.

In other words don't try to be a hero at the expense of your heart and your joints. Remember, you are playing a game, not winning a war. In this regard it is always better for your peace of mind, your health and your wallet not to bet on the outcome.

You're supposed to be having fun—not trying to make a place on the Olympic team. At 40, it's better to be slightly seedy than seared.

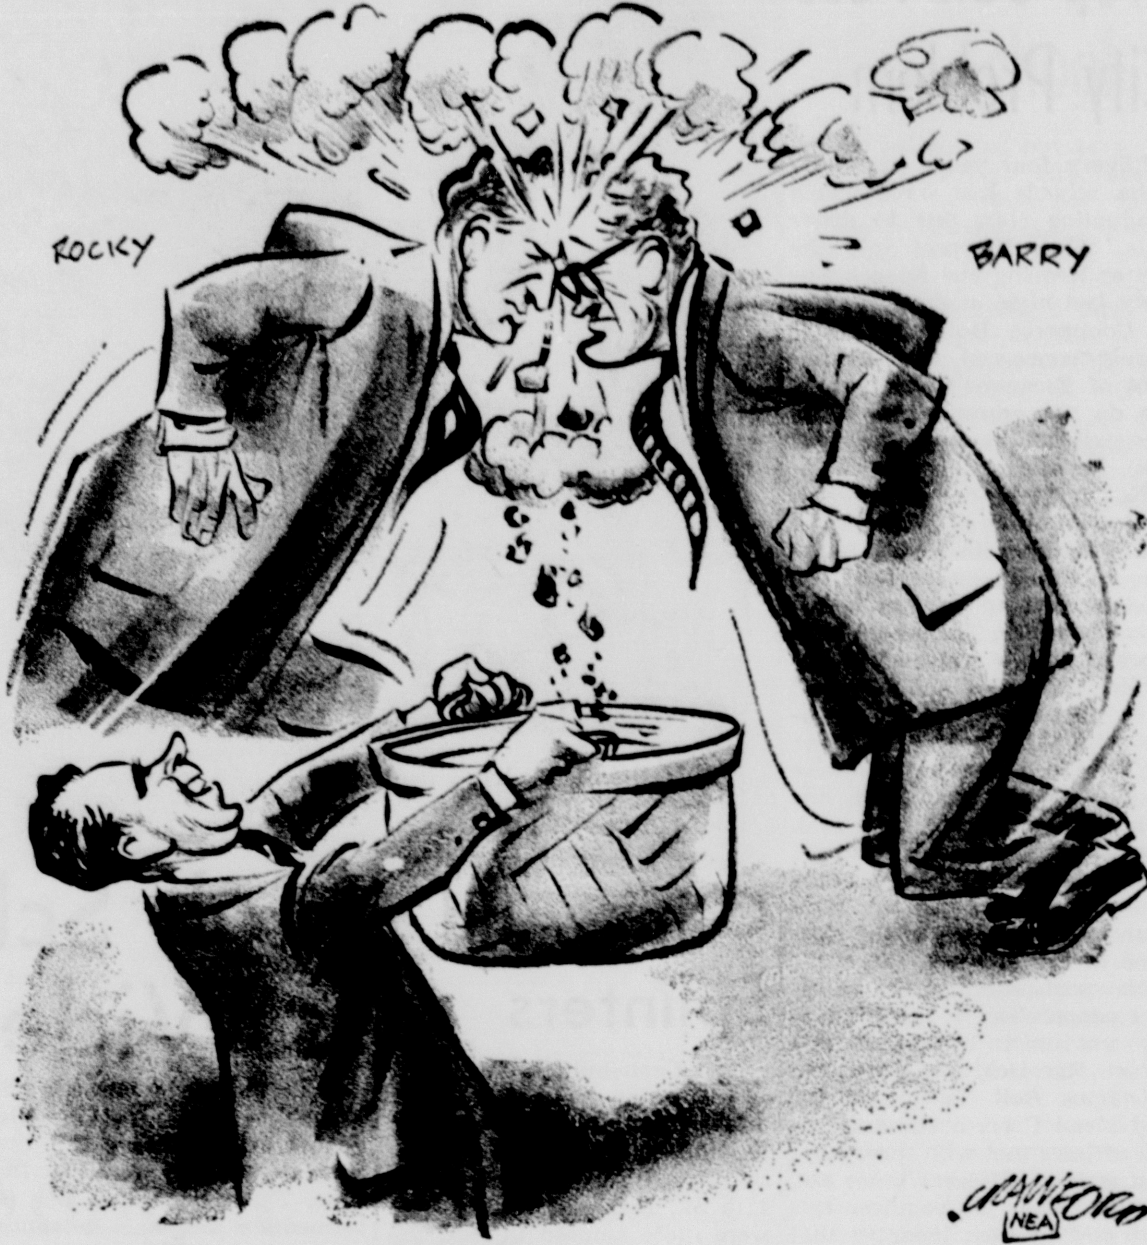

As with all summer sports, sunburn and heat exhaustion are hazards to be avoided. It is better to play a little every day than to save it up and play several hours on the weekend. If you can't play every day, it is doubly important to get your walk and your exercise, on the days when you don't play. The former King of Sweden was still playing at 70 but then he played every day, using indoor courts in bad weather.

When you finish playing it is better to stroll around a bit than to sit down or lie on the grass. Take a tip from the trainers of race horses in this respect. After the stroll, a shower or a short dip in the pool will be most refreshing. And don't forget—when you get too old for tennis, there's always ping pong.

OR STOLEN BY A DOG
COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) The City Water Department wasn't kidding—one of its fireplugs disappeared.

A repair crew found water gushing from a pipe normally covered by the plug, but no sign of the plug or of any mishap, like an errant automobile knocking it over. Officials theorized the plug may have been blown off by high pressure and then sank in a hole made by the water.

"Let the Chips Fall Where They May!"

Washington Comment

By RAY CROMLEY

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — New U. S. studies indicate Red China and the Soviet Union are making increasing use of their government-controlled religious organizations to subvert underdeveloped countries.

This is at a time when both Russia and Red China are conducting strong antireligious drives at home.

Red China has been making strong attempts to enlist and organize Buddhist priests and Buddhist organizations in India, Ceylon, Laos, Burma and South Viet Nam.

In the drive for Laos, the local Buddhist priests were a prime objective of the Red organizers. Once some leading Laotian Buddhists and a number of local priests were won, the Communists gained a certain amount of local "respectability" and organization work among the religious-minded peasants went easier.

The North Viet Nam Red regime is now attempting to marshal Buddhist priests for service in the South Viet Nam guerrilla operations.

The Reds make it clear they think a Buddhist priest network would make an excellent spy organization.

Priests can travel freely and usually without suspicion. They hold, too, that Buddhist priests could better win the confidence of local Vietnamese people who might otherwise be suspicious of communism.

What success the Reds are having in their attempts to subvert Buddhist priests for the South Viet Nam war is not known.

Though it continues to persecute Buddhists, the Chinese Communist government keeps up several showplace Buddhist temples in Red China to which foreign Buddhist leaders are invited. Mao Tse-tung has put his own men in key posts in the Chinese Buddhist hierarchy. Buddhists under Red Chinese control regularly attend international meetings of Asiatic and World Buddhist groups.

A new, as yet unpublished U. S. government research paper reports:

"As an instrument of the Russian state, free of suspicion of foreign or particularist ties, the (Russian) Orthodox Church enjoys the position of a kind of unofficial department of the Soviet Foreign Ministry, entrusted with foreign assignments better conducted in a cask than a double-breasted suit."

"Co-operation with the government's foreign and diplomatic activities is the price which the Orthodox Church must pay for the small and shrinking freedom of activity it enjoys within the U. S. S. R."

(Despite the Orthodox Church's usefulness to the Khrushchev regime, however, the Church and its members are now undergoing the same harsh attacks as other religious believers.)

The study continues:

"There are a number of Orthodox monasteries and other small religious communities in the Middle East traditionally affiliated with the Russian Orthodox Church of the Tsars to which delegations of Russian Churchmen, bearing Soviet passports, hardly ever issued to members of other faiths, make periodic visits."

"The solicitude of the atheistic Soviet state for the spiritual health of a few thousand Christians in the region puzzles the governments of these countries."

"Some observers interpret the exchanges of religious visits with the Ethiopian Coptic Church as a Russian desire to build it up as an African competitor to a more dangerous African rival of the Soviet Union—Islam."

"The Russian Orthodox Church has also (been trying) to regain control of branches of the church in North and South America which became independent when the church in Moscow fell under the control of the Soviet authorities."

Priests can travel freely and usually without suspicion. They hold, too, that Buddhist priests could better win the confidence of local Vietnamese people who might otherwise be suspicious of communism.

What success the Reds are having in their attempts to subvert Buddhist priests for the South Viet Nam war is not known.

Though it continues to persecute Buddhists, the Chinese Communist government keeps up several showplace Buddhist temples in Red China to which foreign Buddhist leaders are invited. Mao Tse-tung has put his own men in key posts in the Chinese Buddhist hierarchy. Buddhists under Red Chinese control regularly attend international meetings of Asiatic and World Buddhist groups.

A new, as yet unpublished U. S. government research paper reports:

"As an instrument of the Russian state, free of suspicion of foreign or particularist ties, the (Russian) Orthodox Church enjoys the position of a kind of unofficial department of the Soviet Foreign Ministry, entrusted with foreign assignments better conducted in a cask than a double-breasted suit."

"Co-operation with the government's foreign and diplomatic activities is the price which the Orthodox Church must pay for the small and shrinking freedom of activity it enjoys within the U. S. S. R."

(Despite the Orthodox Church's usefulness to the Khrushchev regime, however, the Church and its members are now undergoing the same harsh attacks as other religious believers.)

The study continues:

"There are a number of Orthodox monasteries and other small religious communities in the Middle East traditionally affiliated with the Russian Orthodox Church of the Tsars to which delegations of Russian Churchmen, bearing Soviet passports, hardly ever issued to members of other faiths, make periodic visits."

"The solicitude of the atheistic Soviet state for the spiritual health of a few thousand Christians in the region puzzles the governments of these countries."

"Some observers interpret the exchanges of religious visits with the Ethiopian Coptic Church as a Russian desire to build it up as an African competitor to a more dangerous African rival of the Soviet Union—Islam."

"The Russian Orthodox Church has also (been trying) to regain control of branches of the church in North and South America which became independent when the church in Moscow fell under the control of the Soviet authorities."

GARDEN — Voters of Garden Township School District will elect two trustees for terms of four years at the school election June 8. Incumbents Wesley Horning and Ralph Thibault are not seeking re-election. Three candidates, Sidney Lucas, Louis Guertin and James LaVallee have filed petitions with the school board and will have their names on the ballot. Electors will also vote June 8 on a five mills levy to qualify for full state aid and for general operating revenue.

CONSERVATION LAW

The recent experience of one of our conservation men prompts me to write this letter.

It is a downright shame that these deserving men are not backed to the limit in the upholding of the laws that they are trying to carry out, not for themselves but for the citizens, who in some cases show their appreciation by violating these game laws, by spearing spawning fish, and poaching in our forests.

Our children must be educated that all of the bountiful gifts that God put on the land and in the waters are meant—not for the good of the few, but the enjoyment of the many. Therefore, any adult that violates cannot set the right kind of an example to a youngster who strives to emulate the grownups.

A true sportsman pays his fee for a license to hunt and fish at a given time, but what does it avail him if the waters and forests have been stripped ahead of time by persons who have to regard for the lawful rights of others?

It is not fair to the sportsman, nor to the present generation who will grow up and demand their sporting rights. Let's face it... it appears that our conservation men will have to carry cameras around with them to take pictures of lawbreakers, then maybe their word would stand up in court.

Very truly yours,
Mrs. G. B.

OUTSTANDING

A word of public commendation is due the Music Department of the Escanaba Area Schools, both to the fine instructors and the talented students of chorus, orchestra and band from the elementary level through the junior and senior high schools.

All the spring concerts this year were truly outstanding and certainly deserving of praise and support.

Don't you wish you had the money you were going to save for this year's vacation?

It's hardly worth being fixed for life if you've nearly worried yourself to death doing it.

Spring is when a wife won't let her husband let the grass grow under his feet.

A doctor says we shouldn't scratch our skin. Come real hot weather and most of us won't be up to scratch anyway.

MORTAR JOINT

The simplest mortar joint between bricks is the V-joint. It is made by running the tip of a pointed trowel along the joint at a 45-degree angle, removing excess mortar and forcing the remainder of the mortar into a V-shaped groove.

MARQUETTE — Dr. Harold E. Sponberg, former vice president of Northern Michigan University here and now president of Washburn University at Topeka, Kas., booked as commencement speaker at Junction City High School, Kas., gymnasium and the audience was there waiting and hopeful and Dr. Sponberg was speaking at Overbrook, Kas. When the mixup was detected Supt. Harold Deever gave the Junction City grads an impromptu commencement speech.

GAASTRA — Veteran Police Chief Louis Perlongo was fired by the city commission on charges of insubordination "and character unbecoming a police officer." Perlongo, 46, and a native of Gastra, said he's retained legal counsel and would start court action against the commission.

When the commission on May 16 cut Chief Perlongo's salary from $315 to $235 a month he accused it of "political blackmail." The commissioners wrote Mayor Goodreau that they thought their integrity had been questioned, as well as his and that asked him to take action on the chief's charges. The mayor and commissioner met with Perlongo and had fire-works well in advance of the Fourth of July.

IRON MOUNTAIN — A jury which deliberated an hour and 35 minutes returned a judgment of $75,000 in Dickinson County Circuit Court in Walter J. Helgemo's suit for $250,000 damage as result of an auto accident caused by a road cave-in. The suit was against the City of Gastra, the Verona Mining Co. and Pickands-Mather Mining Co. The judgment was against the two mining companies only.

MENOMINEE — The city council has referred the proposed city improvement plan prepared by Harland Bartholomew & Associates of St. Louis to the council as a committee of the whole and the planning commission. It cost $15,000 and planner Malcolm C. Drummond said "This is not an iron-clad fixed document; it can change with the times. The future economy of Menominee will generally be an outgrowth of the existing economic base and industrial employment will undoubtedly continue to provide a large part of the basic employment within the community."

MENOMINEE — Mayor John Reindl returned from Washington saying that Menominee's water and sewer projects were at the top of the list for a $520,000 grant if more accelerated public works funds are voted.

MENOMINEE — The Board of Education is sticking by its full budget for 1964-65, it has informed a school group promoting the millage vote. The group has suggested that if the community school program and vocational education program (budgeted at $9,000 each) were taken from the budget the millage proposal would have a better chance of voter approval.

SOUTH RANGE — Ernest Juntunen expects to be awarded a patent on his horizontal earth boring machine to bore under roads without disturbing surfaces. It will drill and insert pipe simultaneously.

HOUGHTON — Harold C. Lent was feted for his many years as superintendent of Hancock public schools at a surprise testimonial dinner at the Onigaming Club. He is relinquishing his superintendency in July.

Ann Landers

Epileptics Not Mental Cases

Dear Ann Landers: The letter from "Not Ashamed" created the impression that epileptics are mentally retarded. I'm sure YOU know better, Ann Landers, but I'm afraid many of your readers don't.

Eighty percent of the epileptics in this country can attend school, hold jobs, marry and raise children—if they are accepted as normal human beings and not humiliated or discriminated against by an ignorant and ill-informed society.

I am an epileptic and here is my story: I won top honors in high school, spent two years in the Canadian air force during the war, married, had children and now hold a government office.

I have never allowed epilepsy to prevent me from doing anything I wanted to do. No one except my physician and my intimate family knows I'm an epileptic. I adhere to doctor's orders, get plenty of rest and the proper nourishment. I refuse to feel sorry for myself. I'm actually a great deal better off than most people I know. Please print my letter and sign me—ALSO NOT ASHAMED

Dear Also: Here is your letter, and now a word from me.

It's too bad you have kept your epilepsy such a deep, dark secret.

You could help to enlighten people and to make them less fearful of epilepsy if they knew an epileptic could function as well as you do.

Dear Ann Landers: Our son is in the service. He writes two long, newsy letters every month. My husband and I eagerly look forward to the mail.

Tim addresses his letters to both his father and me, although his father seldom writes to him. (I write for both of us.)

When a letter from Tim arrives my husband hands me the rest of the mail, takes the letter from Tim and opens it. When I ask if we can read Tim's letter together, or if he will please read Tim's letter to me, he says, "No, I'd rather read it alone." Then he sits down and reads Tim's letter

Maple Flooring Producers Will Meet In Mackinac

The 67th Summer meeting of the Maple Flooring Manufacturers Association will be held the weekend of July 9-12, at Grand Hotel, Mackinac Island.

Samuel A. Wells, Menominee, president of the association, in announcing the meeting, said that members, guests and their families will spend the three days enjoying the hospitality of the world-famous summer hotel, and that a leisurely approach will be taken in getting members off the golf course in time to attend business sessions. With regard to MFMA affairs, Wells said:

"In addition to the usual review of association advertising, trade promotion and research activities, there will be a thorough briefing in connection with the revised official grading rules for Northern Hard Maple Flooring, which will become effective July 1, 1964."

Richard M. Connor, Laona, Wis., association treasurer, will discuss MFMA financial matters, and review the budgets set up for administering the advertising, trade promotion and research activities. Carl W. Ambroth, White Lake, Wis., MFMA vice-president and chairman of the research committee, will have a special report on current research projects underway, and outline his ideas for a new laboratory study of floor maintenance costs.

and I have to wait until he finishes and hands it to me.

I try not to show it, Ann, but I just boil inside when he does this. Am I wrong to feel that my husband is inconsiderate? Please tell me how to deal with the problem.—HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE

Dear High: Of course he's inconsiderate. But you know that. Every marriage needs at least one mature person so why don't you be the one? Try this:

The next time the mailman brings a letter from Tim walk straight to the kitchen and start to bake a batch of cookies. Ask your husband to please bring Tim's letter to you when he has finished with it. Turn on the kitchen radio, hum, sing, beat away at the cookie batter—keep busy until the letter comes in. You'll enjoy it more when your blood pressure is normal.

Dear Ann Landers: Two weeks ago a friend fixed me up with a blind date. The man (whom I will call Jud) was attractive, a fine conversationalist and has had marital troubles similar to mine. I enjoyed his company but I must confess he consumed more alcohol than any person I have ever gone out with.

He didn't appear to be drunk, but he downed at least a dozen drinks between 8:30 P. M. and midnight. When it came time to go home I was actually afraid to get into the car with him. (I was in a bad accident three years ago and am lucky to be alive). He sensed my concern and said, "Relax. I've never had an accident in my life."

Jud called me last Saturday but I was busy. If he calls again should I accept? I've checked with people who know him well and they all say he drinks like a fish.—ALICE

Dear Alice: If he drinks like a fish, swim with him—don't drive with him.

Too many starry-eyed lovers do not know the difference. Do you? Send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Before You Marry—Is It Love Or Sex?" enclosing with your request 20c in coin and a long, self-addressed envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped and self-addressed envelope.

Women's Activities

Country Club Women Busy With Project

The "Do-It-Yourself" project to redecorate and refurbish the Escanaba Country Club House has progressed rapidly in the week that has elapsed since the women members decided to attempt the project by doing the work themselves.

Volunteer workers from both the Golf and Bridge leagues have redecorated the upstairs lounge, shower room and rest rooms, repainted furniture, and with the exception of hanging new drapes and other minor details of decoration, the upstairs rooms have been completed in one week.

Work will continue on the first floor dining room and card room today, with plans to redecorate these rooms completely.

These activities by the women are primarily to present an attractive Club House to the women who will be entertained here for the Upper Peninsula Women's Golf Championship July 20 to 23.

A committee headed by Rosemary LeMire, Ellie Byrns and Peggy Douglas have done all the planning and rallied volunteers to complete the project as soon as possible so that all members of the club may enjoy its advantages. To date they have been assisted by Marg LeMire, Sally Fontaine, Ruth Dufresne, Jeanette Manning, Kathleen Perkins, Donna Peron and Ruth Needham. Other volunteers will join the group as needed.

At a meeting last evening, following the regular weekly women's golf dinner, committees were formed to raise money to pay for the work that is being done.

Special Projects
Rosemary LeMire will be in charge of an all club project for a Clubster golf cart. Nicky Traverser will conduct an auction sale. Bobbie Treiber, Ann Harrington, Kathleen Perkins, Ruth Needham and Alice Garner will plan a dessert bridge for June 18. Eleanor Bast and Fran Johnson will plan a bake sale and Doris Swanson will plan a gift sale.

Marie Wicklander, golf chairman, requests that all permanent dinner reservations be made this week by calling the club house. The dinners are held every Wednesday after regular league play.

Delta Bells Club Names Officers

Officers for the new year were elected at the closing meeting of Delta Bells Home Extension Group, held at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Derusha Monday evening. They are: Mrs. June Vincent, chairman; Mrs. Eileen Ledgerwood, vice chairman; Mrs. David King, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Derusha, opportunity officer. Lunch was served by Mrs. Derusha, Mrs. Vincent and Mrs. Ledgerwood. Meetings will be resumed in September, with new members joining the group.

Bark River

Tower Bureau
Plans were made for a Fun Night at the Monday evening meeting of the Tower Farm Bureau held at the home of Mrs. Viola Cholewa. Mrs. Clarence Ray is chairman and the Tower Bureau will be host to the Toad Creek and Pioneer Groups for the event which will be held Monday, June 8, at 8 p. m. at the Bark River-Harris Elementary School.

The discussion topic, "Action on Youth" was led by Marvin Ray and discussion centered on ways to encourage youths to seek vocations in the agricultural field. Statistics were also given as where Michigan stands in the production of meat, eggs and other produce. Lunch was served by the hostess.

Changing Nurse Role Reviewed

Twenty-five registered nurses from Bark River, Gladstone, Manistique, Rapid River, Wells, Menominee and Escanaba attended a recent meeting in Escanaba to discuss needs and opportunities for continuing their academic training. The last of a series of such meetings held throughout the Upper Peninsula, the meeting focused on credit transfer possibilities permitting nurses to earn credit at Bay de Noc Community College that can be later transferred towards a four-year BS degree in nursing at Michigan State University.

Other such meetings have been held at Marquette, Sault Ste. Marie, Hancock and Ironwood. They involved credit transfer programs that have been worked out between MSU and Michigan Technological University, Northern Michigan University, Sault Tech and the Gogebic Community College.

In reviewing the implications of continuing education for nurses, Dr. Raymond Hockstad of Escanaba told the nurses that continuing education for nurses can be vital to the total medical community. He stressed the need for training and education across the board and said this should concern doctors, medical technicians, orderlies, hospital administrators and practical nurses as well as the registered nurse. "It is of vital importance," said Dr. Hockstad, "since there are many changes taking place in the medical profession and many persons the medical team need to know why as well as how certain treatments are important."

Commenting on the influence of the nursing profession itself, Dr. Hockstad said there appear to be many changes and some stress in the profession. "Many are asking," he said, "who should be considered a nurse? Are professional nurses invading the registered nurses job? Will the degree nurse take the place of the RN?"

The doctor reported that some leaders predict there will be a rather noted separation within the nursing profession with one group becoming known as the technical or working nurse and another group concentrating on training, research and supervision. The latter group, he predicted, would be most interested in continuing education programs which would involve the attainment of either a BS or a BA degree.

Dr. McNerney Active In Loyola Alumni Campaign

Dr. Edna S. McNerney, 1219 Ludington St., is working in behalf of Loyola University of Chicago, assisting a medical alumni campaign for the University's Stritch School of Medicine.

She is seeking help for the Loyola Medical Loyalty Fund, designed to guarantee continuing medical education at her alma mater. Dr. McNerney graduated from Loyola Medical School in 1939.

The Loyola Medical Loyalty Fund is an annual alumni contribution effort now in its fifth year. The appeal seeks gifts to be used for direct support of the operating budget of the medical school. Alumni throughout the country are being asked to raise $200,000 annually to augment other sources of income to keep the operational budget in balance.

Local alumni in addition to Dr. McNerney, include Dr. Donald H. Boyce, 1401 1st Ave. Escanaba; Dr. William A. LeMire, 318 Lake Shore Dr., Escanaba and Dr. Donald F. LeMire, 1811 Lake Shore Dr., Escanaba.

Nursing Loan Fund Described

A new loan fund for girls desiring to become registered nurses was described Monday night by Mrs. M. D. Meiers, president of the U.P. Hospital Auxiliary at a spring dinner meeting of the Schoolcraft Auxiliary. Those using it must train at either St. Joseph's Hospital or St. Luke's Hospital, and spend the first year of their nursing career in the Upper Peninsula.

Mrs. Meiers spoke of the role of the Auxiliary, in informing the community about the hospital, helping, assisting and offering service to it, and in fund-raising. Special tribute was paid to the Gulliver group of the Auxiliary and work on tray favors, considered the best in the U.P.

Announcement was made of a district workshop June 3 in Ishpeming and the state annual meeting June 15 on Mackinac Island.

During the program J. Earl Cousineau sang, with Mrs. James H. Fyvie as accompanist and Mrs. W. L. Norton presented readings.

Briefly Told

Helen Bartus, 513 Range, was taken by ambulance to Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital at 8:55 p.m., Tuesday.

Fine of $5 and costs of $7.30 were paid in Justice Court by Jack Roemer, 140 S. 3rd, on a charge of illegal possession of bass.

Death Takes Mrs. Weber, 34

Mrs. Richard (Ellen) Weber, 34, of Manistique Rte. 1 died Wednesday at the family home.

She was born Ellen Steele, Oct. 20, 1929, in Hartford, Wis., and came to Manistique following her marriage which took place in April of 1948 in Hartford. She was a member of St. Francis de Sales Church and of St. Theresa's Circle.

Surviving are her husband, three sons, Richard, Norman and Raymond, and two daughters, Monica and Brenda, all at home, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Steele, Black Creek, Wis., two brothers, Everett and Roy Steele, Appleton, and two sisters, Mrs. Dorothy Barr, Manitowoc, and Mrs. Charlotte Sunie, Hurley.

Friends may call at Messier-Brouillette Funeral Home after 2 p.m. today and liturgical prayers will be recited there at 7:30 this evening. Services will be held at St. Francis de Sales Church Friday at 8 a.m. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Francis M. Schermer will officiate. Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery.

Jaycees Ready Lakeview Park

Jaycees are striving to have Lakeview Park in shape for Memorial Day and have held several workbees, under direction of Robert Thorell, park chairman.

Inland Lime and Stone Co. donated 150 feet of 10-inch steel culvert for the park and the city crew will haul and install it, James Denman, Jaycee booster member has donated shingle roofing for the well and is helping install it. The city will lay a concrete floor at the well site.

Work presently underway includes tearing away the old building near the well. A concrete building will be erected there for storing equipment used in maintaining the park. Cornell Moen will draw plans, carpenters and masons will build it.

Mowing, general cleanup, preparing table sites, painting, are underway. Jaycees were aided by the Air Search and Rescue Squadron, now sponsored by the Jaycees.

Future work will include attractive signs at both entrances, a tourist guide sign and beach improvement. Victor Haas of Indian Lake State Park has contacted Marquette regional offices for assistance in surveying the park.

Ray Hughson, Jaycee president, said he appreciates the efforts of Jaycee members and cooperation of the city and Inland. The club plans to make the project its primary effort this year. The park is being improved not only for tourists but for local residents, who are invited to use the attractive facility so close to town.

New members of the Jaycees are Jerry Vicker, William Beaudin, Fred McNally and Bob Popour. William Beaudin is taking over as manager of the Jaycee Little League baseball team.

At the Jaycee state convention, attended by Richard Kettick, the Manistique Jaycees received a "Founder's Plaque" for starting a Jaycee organization in Munising. Two years ago Manistique Jaycees also extended a club in Newberry.

CREWS OF THE Manistique Pulp & Paper Co. are laying 3,300 feet of new railroad track in the millyard. The new track will provide straighter lines to service the mill and connect with a new warehouse built last year. Robert Popour is on the tractor and trackmen are John Gauthier, right and Floyd Hewitt. (Daily Press Photo)

Born in Chilton, Wis., Nov. 15, 1883, he had been a Manistique resident since 1890. He was associated in the Manistique Lime Co., predecessor of Inland Lime and Stone Co.

He was a graduate of Shattuck school, Fairbault, Minn. Surviving are his wife, the former Ann Nosworthy; two sons, George of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Dr. Bruce Nicholson of Cincinnati, Ohio; 10 grandchildren, a sister, Mrs. Myrtle Baker, Minneapolis and a brother, Leon, Manistique.

He was a member of the Presbyterian Church of the Redeemer and the Elks Lodge. Friends may call at the funeral home from 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., Friday. The Rev. William Farnham will officiate at services. Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery.

Girl Scouts Win Awards

An impressive ceremony that marked a milestone in Girl Scouting in Manistique, was held in the Lincoln gym Tuesday night when the highest Girl Scout Award, the curved bars were presented.

The following girls received the awards from their leaders: Troop 13, led by Mrs. Signe Cameron; Mary Ellen Cameron, Kathy Fox, Ann Marie Lyns, Judy Konte, Brenda Norton, Becky Rodgers, Toni Russek, Dianne Schneider; Troop 12, led by Mrs. Duane Waters, Rosemary Creeden, Jane Brunet, Mary Beth Waters, Glenadine Gray, Susan Pollman, Debra Fountain, Christine Cooper, Bonnie Hentschell and Pamela Putvin.

Parents of the girls pinned the awards on their daughters, who were members of the Cadettes.

Presentations of badges were made to Junior Girl Scouts in the following troops; with Mrs. Bruce McKilligan leader, with Mrs. Fred Lesica assisting; Troop 8, Mrs. Earl Williamson, Mrs. Edwin Demars assisting; Troop 10, Mrs. John Strable with Mrs. James Slining, assisting; Troop 14, Mrs. Art Lehman.

Mrs. Williamson presented pins to new leaders, Mrs. Victor Beaudry, Mrs. William Wood, Mrs. Wilfred Johnson, Mrs. W. J. Wallace, Mrs. Francis Kasun, Mrs. Robert Ebbi, Mrs. David Heintz, Mrs. James Slining.

Mrs. Earl H. LeBrasseur was presented a certificate of appreciation for 40 years service to Girl Scouting. Mrs. LeBrasseur started with the Brownie Scouts in 1924 and worked up to the Girl Scout Council. She responded, that she will continue to support the Girl Scouts and will always be its friend.

Mrs. Richard Bonifas was chairman of the program. Mrs. Earl Williamson is president of the Council.

This will be the last Court of Awards held city-wide. Awards will be presented by individual troops next year.

Mrs. Williamson announced that the workbee held May 23 was well attended and donations from Inland Limestone Co. of 10 gallons of paint, nails from C. & L. Hardware and a Dinner bell from Warshawsky Bros., was gratefully acknowledged.

She stated there are still openings in the 12 day sessions at Camp.

After the ceremonies lunch was served.

Rhoads Will Sell Ponies And Farm

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rhoads, Cooks, are selling their ponies, in Ohio and plan to raise Arabians in Kentucky. They will sell their Cooks farm, the former Roberts place, and build a home on the 68-acre tract they have on Lake Michigan, to spend summers here. Mr. Rhoads is a former Ohio dairy and construction business operator.

City Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Hahn, 638 Arbutus Ave., returned home Monday after spending the weekend visiting their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Eakley and family, Kalamazoo. They also visited with their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Francis Edwards and granddaughters, Carol and Kay. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Wood.

Commission Accepts Bids

A contract has been negotiated by the Schoolcraft Road Commission and the State Highway Department for a federal aid road project on 8.11 miles on the Inland road, extending east from Gulliver. Fox Valley Construction Co. has the contract on a bid of $112,965. Grade, drainage and a 22-foot non-skid surface are included, as well as raising of the Soo Line tracks. The track raising is outside the FAS contract and will cost $2,728.

The Schoolcraft Road Commission at its meeting Tuesday night accepted a bid of Brebner Machinery, Marquette to provide a 35-ton trailer on a net bid of $794, after allowing for trade-in of a caterpillar scraper and a V plow. It was lowest of four bidding.

Five bids on a highway mower with 6-foot side cutting and sickle bar were opened and referred for tabulation and study.

The Commission has accepted the bid of Creighton Ford Sales on two pickup trucks at net cost after trade-in of $2,141, and the bid of Gustafson Oil Co., Escanaba to provide asphalt and emulsion for sealcoating at $1416 per gallon. About 7259 gallons of asphalt and 28,950 of emulsion will be needed for sealcoating the Township road.

Employees of the Commission have presented a request for a 10c per hour wage increase, a minimum of three days sick leave without requirement of a doctor's certificate and three weeks vacation after 10 years service.

The committee was advised the request will be considered, after which a joint meeting will be held.

A resolution has been adopted that due to limitations of the local road fund, application of dust layers this year will be only to the extent materials are furnished by the townships.

Bids have been asked on fleet, public liability and property damage, general liability and contract liability insurance.

Allocation Set On Property Tax

The Schoolcraft County tax allocation has been set at 7.38 mills for the county, 12 mills for the intermediate school district, and 6½ for all school districts except Inwood and Hiawatha and Manistique city, which get 7½, and Germfask, 6½.

All townships were allocated one mill except Inwood and Hiawatha, which received none and Germfask, a half mill.

The levy will be on state equalized valuation of $25,-067,730.

Perfect Hand

Mrs. Lester (Beatrice) Richards of Manistique held a perfect cribbage hand while playing with her husband recently at camp on the Manistique River. She held three fives and the jack of spades and the five of spades was cut. During play, she also held high cards of 21 and 24 points.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. William Hoig, Curtis, are the parents of a son born May 26 in Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital. The baby weighed 10 pounds ½ ounce. Mrs. Hoig is the former Barbara Lowry.

Hospital

Admitted to Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital were Barbara Hoig, Curtis; and Helen Bartus, 513 Range. Discharged were Alvina Vanatta, Gail Guertin, Beatrice Buzzo, Leona Edwards and Lynn Janes and baby.

Veteran, Youngster Get Third Shutout

By The Associated Press

When Joe Nuxhall was throwing newspapers onto front porches, Hank Fischer was tossing toys out of his playpen.

Two decades later, Nuxhall and Fischer are throwing shutouts at National League opponents.

Each pitcher recorded his third shutout Wednesday night, high in the league this season. Cincinnati's Nuxhall stopped the stumbling Los Angeles Dodgers 1-0 on six hits while Fischer hurled a four-hitter in Milwaukee's 2-0 victory over Houston.

The 24-year-old Fischer increased his record to 5-2 and lowered his earned-run average to 2.75. Nuxhall, 35-year-old veteran, won his fourth game against three defeats and reduced his ERA to 3.30.

The Cincinnati southpaw went from delivering newspapers in Hamilton, Ohio, to pitching in the major leagues at the age of 15. That was in 1944 when Fischer was four years old.

When the Braves' right-hander entered organized baseball in 1959, Nuxhall already had been playing for 15 years. In fact, four years before, Nuxhall led the league in shutouts with five.

String Is Ended
Fischer's victory Wednesday night overshadowed the two-hit performance of his opponent, Skinny Brown of Houston. In another NL shutout, Art Mahaffey threw a four-hitter as Philadelphia halted Pittsburgh's five-game winning streak 2-0. Juan Marichal limited St. Louis to seven hits in San Francisco's 2-1 triumph while Dick Ellsworth and Chicago stopped New York 7-1 on seven hits.

In the American League, Detroit defeated Baltimore 6-3. New York whipped Cleveland 9-2 in 11 innings and Los Angeles and Minnesota split, the Angels winning 4-1 before the Twins took the nightcap 4-3 in 13 innings. Rain washed out Chicago's doubleheader at Kansas City.

Loses Three-Hitter
Nuxhall got the better of the Dodgers' Sandy Koufax, who allowed the Reds just three hits but still dropped his fourth game in eight decisions. Nuxhall didn't walk a man and allowed only two Dodgers to reach second base.

The Reds scored in the first on a walk to Pete Rose, Tommy Harper's infield hit and a bloop single by Vada Pinson.

The Braves scored two runs for Fischer in the fourth. Ed Mathews singled and went to second when Ty Cline was hit by a pitch. Both advanced on a passed ball. An intentional walk with one out loaded the bases. Two runs then scored as Rusty Staub bobbled a throw that would have completed an inning-ending double play.

Has 7-1 Victory
Mahaffey completed his first game in eight starts, holding the Pirates to two doubles by Dick Schofield and singles by Donn Clendenon and Smoky Burgess. Bob Friend lost his fourth game against four victories. Doubles by Clay Dalrymple and Cookie Rojas and Richie Allen's single in the third gave the Phillies their runs.

Marichal brought his record to 7-1 as the Giants stayed close to the first-place Phillies. He got out of tight situations three different times. Chuck Hiller and Duke Snider opened the game with consecutive home runs off the Cardinals' Bob Gibson, who suffered his first defeat after four triumphs.

The Mets calmed down after their uncharacteristic outburst the day before when they scored 19 runs. They gave starter Al Jackson the usual support—no runs in the 5-13 innings he pitched. Jackson, now 3-6, has not had a run scored for him in 36 innings.

The Cubs put the game away in the first when Ron Santo tripled in one run and scored on Ernie Banks' single.

The Scoundrel Suffers Injury

CHERRY HILL, N.J. (AP)—

An injury has forced The Scoundrel out of the $100,000-added Jersey Derby at Garden State Saturday and moved Roy Sturges' Mr. Brick into the favored role.

The Scoundrel, purchased last week for $500,000 by San Francisco sportsman Kjell Qvale, was declared out of the race Wednesday after an examination by Dr. A. C. Colando, a veterinarian. Trainer Mesh Tenney estimated The Scoundrel would be out of action for at least six months.

This means the 3-year-old colt, which finished second in the Preakness and third in the Kentucky Derby under the colors of Rex Ellsworth, will miss the Belmont Stakes at New York June 6.

Dr. Colando said the horse "had an acute inflammation of the superficial flexor tendon of the left foreleg."

He added that he was sure no permanent damage has been done and with the proper rest,

The Scoundrel could return to racing.

It was presumed that The Scoundrel's condition developed Wednesday morning when he was given a long gallop over the track.

Mr. Brick will be ridden by Bobby Ussery.

Seven starters, possibly eight, are expected in the 1½-mile Jersey Derby.

Roman Brother, owned by Harbor View Farms, will be entered in the race, said trainer Burley Parke. Roman Brother will be ridden by Wayne Chambers.

And there was the possibility that Claiborne Farms' Alphabet would be entered before the deadline Friday, which would make eight starters.

Palmer Checks Open Course

WASHINGTON (AP) — Masters champion Arnold Palmer planned his second look today at the Congressional Country Club course, where he will shoot for the National Open golf title June 18-20.

"I'll probably play the course a couple more times after this before checking in on the Tuesday before the tournament," the all-time leading money winner said.

"I'm working hard on my game. I'm driving okay. If I can get in the putting groove, I think I'll have a good chance."

Palmer said he doesn't think he has putted well since 1960—the year that he came closest to winning the professional grand slam (the U.S. and British Opens, the Masters and PGA in a single year).

"I feel one of these days I'm going to break out in a putting rash," he said.

In 1960 Palmer won the Masters and U.S. Opens, missed the British by a single stroke and led the PGA through the first round.

PITCHING — Art Mahaffey, Phillies, shut out Pittsburgh 2-0 on four hits as Philadelphia maintained its slim grip on National League lead.

BATTING — Chuck Hinton, Senators, drove in three runs with homer and two singles in Washington's 9-8, 11-inning victory over Boston.

Archer Pacing Speedway Golf

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Par may have been a paper tiger for the 55 pros who whipped it in the first round of the $70,000 Speedway Open golf tourney, but the roar came today to shatter the coveted silence they demand.

Thirty-three of the fastest — and possibly loudest — cars in 500-mile-race history had two hours of carburetion tests this afternoon around the 2¼-mile oval which cuts the golf course in half. They'll sound off in preparation for the 48th race Saturday.

Lean and lanky Californian George Archer set the pace Wednesday, racing around the 6,467-yard spread with a seven underpar 64 that included a record 29 on the incoming nine.

The rookie pro had dropped out of last weekend's Memphis Open with a sore hand, and his best finish to date was fourth in the San Diego Open.

Archer led the host of assaults on the 3536-71 par. Joe Camp bell, former golf and basketball star at Purdue, and Harold (Catfish) Kneee, Aiken, S.C., knotted in second with 65s. Doug Sanders, George Bayer and Kel Nagle held down third with 66s.

Archer's seven birdies on the back nine produced the second best ninehole score of the season — topped only by Bob Charles' 28 last week at Memphis. Six players owned the previous Speedway back nine standard of 30.

First prize of $12,000 goes to the winner. The field will be sliced to the top 90 and ties for Friday's third round. The golfers take a holiday Saturday for the race and conclude play on Sunday.

Billy Casper, 1962 Speedway champ, had a 68 and topped former winners. Dow Finsterwald, defending champion, posted a 70. Two-time winner Doug Ford was two over par at 73.

Jack Nicklaus, leading money winner on the current tour, had on the 3536-71 par. Joe Camp

The deadline is near for purchase of season tickets for the Upper Peninsula Hockey Club, the proposed new team in the United States Hockey League. The target is 800 advance season tickets, necessary for a franchise in the league. Officials of the U.P. club in Marquette have urged fans from throughout the region to support their efforts to bring top notch hockey to the Peninsula. Tickets may be ordered by mail through the Marquette Chamber of Commerce.

A couple of well known pitchers will be on opposing mounds when the Sault Softball Assn. opens the Inter-city League this week. Firing for Doran's will be Reno Pettenuzzo who was one of the region's greatest chuckers for Carlings last season. His mound foe, pitching for Bosch, will be Dave (Whitey) Horka who has spent the last two seasons in the service, starring for championship teams. Prior to that he pitched for three straight U.P. Class A championship teams.

A merchandise melon worth $1,000 is being put together by officials of the Upper Peninsula Golf Association for the men's championship tournament which will be staged in Houghton and Calumet Aug. 6-8. Former Escanaba golfer Bob Freimuth of the Calumet-Laurier Club is president of the U.P. Association and chairman of the tournament. Competing will be golfers from the 23 clubs associated with the U.P. organization.

Half miler Randy Pilon was honored as the most valuable athlete on the Iron Mountain track team at the sixth annual Mountaineer awards dinner this week. Other most valuable senior Mountaineers honored were Paul Feldhausen in football and basketball, Greg Bastian in skiing and tennis and Dick Justus in golf. The Pat Izzo Sportsmanship award was presented to Tom Fleury.

Former Eskymo athlete Ward Thompson was presented a blanket award at the recent Augustana College spring athletic banquet. The award is presented only to seniors who have had four years of competition on athletic squads. Thompson starred in track and football during his college career.

Baseball fans are sure to remember Angel Macias, the Mexican Little Leaguer who pitched a perfect game in the Williamsport world series in 1957. He's now 19, known as El Flaco (The Thin One), plays center field for a Class A Mexican team and is the leading home run hitter in organized Mexican baseball. Scouts feel the 160 pound switch hitter has a good chance of making the big leagues.

Mantle Shrugs Off Suggestion To Shift Fields

NEW YORK (AP) — Mickey Mantle, New York's injury-plagued star, brusquely thrust aside any possibility of switching from center field to a less laborious position to preserve his aging legs.

The switch-hitting Yankee slugger, who underwent a knee operation—his second—last winter, was forced out of the lineup again Wednesday because of a muscle strain in his left side, in the same area where he had been previously bothered by a Charley horse.

The latest injury occurred in the eighth inning of Tuesday night's game with Cleveland when Mickey made a spectacular running catch of a fly ball hit by Max Alvis. The Yankee Stadium crowd gave him a standing ovation.

Mantle has had a history of leg trouble but it has never been more evident than this season. Once one of the fastest—if not the fleetest—in the game, Mickey has slowed to a walk.

On a number of occasions, he has settled for singles on long drives that normally he would have stretched into doubles. Except for occasional well-placed

It's strictly a soda pop and early-to-bed world now for Bo, who Wednesday night took a shower after a game for the first time this season.

The reformed Angel — "I'm behaving like a ball player" — pitched his first complete game and equaled his entire 1963 victory total by posting victory No. 2 as Los Angeles defeated Minnesota 4-1 in the opener of a two-nighter.

It's been two years and 22 days since Belinsky, a veteran pool shark and rookie pitcher, announced his arrival on the

Houston Signs Prep Infielder

SHREVEPORT, La. (AP) — The Houston Colts signed all-state shortstop Buddy Nelson of Fair Park High School to a substantial bonus contract Wednesday.

Houston scout Connie Ryan signed the 17-year-old high star, who compiled a .392 career batting average during his three years at Fair Park.

Five Pre-Season Games For Lions

NEW YORK (AP) — The Detroit Lions will play five pre-season exhibition games this year, including the first game of a two-night doubleheader in Cleveland, National Football League Commissioner Pete Rozelle announced Wednesday.

The schedule:
Aug. 8, Washington at Charlotte, N. C. night; Aug. 14, Baltimore at home, night; Aug. 23, at Philadelphia; Aug. 28, Cleveland at home, night; Sept. 5, New York at Cleveland (first game), and Green Bay vs. Cleveland (second game), twi-night.

major league scene by hurling a no-hitter. Last year, he made his first exit, shipped to the minors with a 2-9 record.

This time, he says, things are going to be different.

"I'm giving it my best shot," he said. "I've pitched some good games and didn't win. But as long as I know I'm pitching well, I won't get discouraged. The breaks are bound to fall my way sooner or later."

Scatter Seven Hits

They did against the Twins. Belinsky allowed Minnesota's only run on Harmon Killebrew's 13th homer but scattered seven hits, struck out eight and did not walk a man in a strong performance. Still, he needed some brilliant fielding support—and got it.

With the Angels leading 2-1 and two men on in the seventh, Bobby Knoop made an over-the-shoulder catch of Earl Battey's shallow fly to right. Then, in the eighth, with the tying run on base, Albie Pearson made a running, one-handed catch of Zoilo Versalles' line drive to deep center.

The Twins, however, came back to take the nightcap, winning 4-3 on Don Mincher's homer in the 13th inning.

Elsewhere in the American League, Ed Rakow stopped Baltimore for the second time in three games and preserved a 6-3 Detroit victory, the New York Yankees whipped Cleveland 7-2 and Washington edged Boston 9-8 in 11 innings. The Chicago White Sox were rained out at Kansas City.

Tigers Uncover Relief Artist In Ed Rakow

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Tigers — with a new relief sensation in the bullpen — returned home today with a 55 road record and their first crack at the first place Chicago White Sox.

The Bengalt open a four-game series with the Sox Friday night.

Manager Charlie Dressen probably would like to start Ed Rakow, the sorearmed bartender from Kansas City. Rakow personally helped the Tigers take two of three games from the zooming Baltimore Orioles. His 4-13 inning relief job gave Detroit a 6-8 victory Wednesday night.

He rescued starter Phil Regan in the fifth and scattered the Los Angeles Dodgers 1-0, Milwaukee did the same to Houston 2-0 and the Chicago Cubs defeated the New York Mets 7-1.

Pearson, besides saving Belinsky, scored the tie-breaking run for the Angels in the third inning of the opener when he singled, stole second and scampered home on a single by Lee Thomas. In the nightcap, Bob Allison's 11th homer produced an early Minnesota lead but the Angels scored twice in the eighth to tie the score. Mincher's seventh homer decided it.

Tough In Relief

Rakow, who pitched two-hit relief for 5 1-3 innings against the Orioles Monday, stopped Baltimore on two hits over the final 4 1-3 this time. The Tigers broke a 1-1 tie in the fourth with a three-run rally. Don Demeter starting things with a triple and scoring the lead run on a wild pitch by Dave McNally. Al Kaline later homered for Detroit.

Bill Skowron and Chuck Hinton homered for the Senators as they built a 7-2 lead, but Dick Stuart's second homer of the game eventually tied the score in the seventh. Each team scored in the eighth before Washington pulled it out in the 11th against Dick Radatz on a walk to Jim King, a sacrifice.

Mike Brumley's infield hit and Dick Phillips' single.

Al Downing scattered seven hits and chipped in with a triple and single for the Yankees. Downing had the Indians shut out until Larry Brown homered in the eighth for his third hit. Roger Maris hit an inside-the-park homer and Clete Boyer hit a two-run homer as the Yankees handed Jack Kralick his first defeat after four victories.

two hits the rest of the way to pick up his second relief victory in three days, boosting his record to 2-3.

Rakow, who claims his arm only hurts when he loses, got credit for a 52 decision on Monday. He lost his first three starts in a Detroit uniform but seems to thrive on bullpen work.

But Dressen is expected to start his ace, Dave Wickersham (63), against the Sox... with Rakow in the bullpen.

Baltimore took a 21 lead going into the fourth when Detroit rallied for three runs on Don Demeter's three-bagger and a wild split by Oriole rookie Dave McNally.

With one out and Demeter on third, McNally uncorked a wild pitch to tie the score at 2-2: Jake Wood, playing third base, walked. Norm Cash doubled to drive in another run and George Thomas drove Cash home with a single.

The Tigers made it 6-3 in the fifth on Al Kaline's fourth home run of the season. The first run came in the third on Regan's single, an error by Brooks Robinson and Jerry Lumpe's single.

Baltimore scored in the second on Don Wert's error on a pop fly. He was playing short stop. Dick McAuliffe, who has been in a slump, was benched. Jake Powell drove in another run on a sacrifice fly to Al Kaline in the third.

Regan got into trouble in the fifth when Russ Snyder broke a bone in his left ankle when he tripped over first base and will be lost to the Orioles for about a month. Rookie Sam Bowen replaced him in the outfield, and Rakow replaced Regan on the mound.

WINNING SMILE

Jim Clark of Scotland cannot restrain his joy at driving the fastest speed ever recorded in an Indianapolis Speedway qualification for the 500-mile race Memorial Day. The 28-year-old driver zipped a four-lap speed of 158.828 miles-per-hour in his rear-mount, Ford-powered car, below, to win the pole position.

Drivers Get Last Chance To Check Speedway Cars

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Drivers in Saturday's $500,000 Memorial Day auto race got their last chance today to check whether mechanics put everything back in the right place after post-qualification tear-downs.

The 33 glittering cars, stripped down to the bare frames in a scrutiny for damaged parts, were to be checked out in a final practice with full fuel loads from 2 to 4 p.m. EST.

It seemed unlikely that the highly specialized mechanics had misassembled the expensive machines—but it has happened. The late Jimmy Bryan, winner of the 500 in 1958, was left at the starting line the next year when he couldn't let out his clutch. Two bolts had been interchanged.

Today also was the last chance for world road racing champion Jimmy Clark to get in a little practice since winning the Grand Prix of the Netherlands last Sunday. He qualified his new Lotus-Ford hurriedly on the first day of the 500 time trials May 16—so hurriedly he set a 10-mile record of 158.828 m.p.h. for the Indianapolis Motor Speedway—then dashed off to Holland to practice on the North Sea dunes course.

times have changed in the decades since the drivers used to wheel into the Speedway on race-day morning in pickup trucks, with no preliminaries, and set about fueling up for the 500. Indianapolis has had four solid weeks of parties, and recognition affairs for past and present luminaries of the auto racing world.

brawl on 16th Street, main artery to the Speedway, is to be more subdued this Friday night—or so police hope. Instead of the thousands of fans partying all night in cars parked for miles along the street, a special overnight parking lot has been set up on the Speedway's sprawling property. Authorities also hope a special night court for peace-breakers will calm down the early arrivals.

Wayne Gets Tie For 2nd Place

DETROIT (AP)—Wayne State gained a tie for second in the President's Athletic Conference final baseball standings Wednesday by defeating Eastern Michigan 8-4 in the first game of a double-header. The second game, which did not count in the standings, was won by Eastern Michigan 5-4.

Catcher Fred Wolcott tripled with the bases full and scored on pitcher Chris Bockhausen's single in a four-run sixth inning rally that won the opener for Wayne.

The games concluded the season for both Wayne and Eastern Michigan.

The first game victory gave Wayne a 7-3 conference record and a runner-up tie with Western Reserve. Allegheny won the championship.

Softball

The practice session scheduled for Hamms-Merchants at Lemmer diamond this evening has been cancelled because of a workbee at the field, the City Recreation Department announced.

youngster which hopes to rival the Mardi Gras and the Tournament of Roses, will reach a colorful climax this evening in a parade featuring 33 elaborate floats—one for each starting car—and scores of bands and marching units.

Pre-Season NFL Slate Is Listed

NEW YORK (AP)—Featured by another doubleheader in Cleveland on Sept. 5, the National Football League has announced a pre-season exhibition schedule of 35 games.

The College All-Stars vs. the champion Chicago Bears in Chicago opens the exhibition season on Aug. 7.

The Cleveland twin bill pairs the New York Giants against the Detroit Lions and the Green Bay Packers against the Browns.

Churches Unite For Vacation Bible School

ROCK — The Bethany Lutheran Church, Perkins and Faith Lutheran Church, Rock, will hold a combined Daily Vacation Bible School at the church in Rock, beginning Monday, June 1. The theme this year, "God, My Country and I", emphasizes Christian citizenship. According to the Rev. Wm. S. Avery, pastor of the two congregations, "In the troubled political world of these days, this theme is a particularly important one, and should be of interest to all patriotic Americans, whether members of the church or not."

Class sessions will begin at 9 a.m. each day. The kindergarten class will be dismissed at noon. All others will continue at 3 p.m. The daily schedule, consisting of devotions, Bible study, and art projects, will continue from Monday to Friday, June 5. At 8 p.m. on June 5, a final service will be held at the Bethany church in Perkins.

Teachers this year include Mrs. I. Wiitala, superintendent, Mesdames R. Koski, R. Lehto, E. Simonson, E. Ontto, Mrs. Weingartner and E. Peterson. Mrs. Avery will serve as pianist. Children in the Rock-Perkins area are invited to attend.

Picket Arrests Protested By Crowd Of 300

Harvey W. Moses said the council decided on "a course of action to be taken in this strike." He declined to elaborate, saying that for "good reasons" the council would delay its announcement until later in the day.

The violence-marked strike at Essex, a major industry in this city of 7,629, has been going on since Feb. 28. It became exactly three months old today.

The Hillsdale Local of the International Union of Electrical Workers pulled out its 180 plant workers in a dispute over terms of a first contract with the company.

A chief issue has been the Hillsdale local's demand for wage parity with the Indiana workers.

Essex has said that the average hourly wage at the Hillsdale plant, about $2.43, is from 40 to 60 cents below the average wages paid the employees in the Fort Wayne plant.

A plant guard was shot and wounded Tuesday night, another guard was clubbed with a baseball bat, and a union picket was slashed.

Trouble broke out Wednesday night when a carload of guards leaving the factory was intercepted. Rocks were thrown.

Park Integrated

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP)—City-Parish (County) recreation and park facilities were integrated without incident Wednesday.

Negroes played golf at two city courses and tennis at City Park.

Memorial Rites, Parade Planned Here Saturday

The Escanaba community in solemn tribute to its war dead will through it's veterans' organizations hold memorial rites and a parade on Saturday, Memorial Day.

The Post Office and other agencies and some business houses will be closed on Saturday. On Friday all state agency offices will be closed, but the City Hall, Court House, and Post Office will be open. There will be no deliveries of mail on Saturday but the Post Office will be open for pick-up by box holders.

Memorial Day observances are traditionally arranged by the Veterans' Council, representing the Veterans organizations, and the Veterans of Foreign Wars is this year's group responsible for the day's program.

Wilfred Doucette, VFW commander, said the veterans will meet at the VFW Club at 7:15

Will Place Flags

Flags will be placed on the graves of all veterans in Escanaba's three cemeteries by veterans' organizations again this year. In past years some of the graves have been unintentionally missed.

Families of veterans whose graves are not marked with a flag by Friday afternoon are asked to call one of the following: For graves in Lakeview Cemetery, the Disabled American Veterans, William Garbett, ST6-1903; Gardens of Rest, the Amvets, George Embs, ST6-1729; Holy Cross, American Legion, Lee Thompson, ST6-2247.

a.m. Saturday and from there would go to Ludington Park where the day's program will be opened with the firing of volleys at the Memorial marker in the park.

From the Park the veterans will go to the three cemeteries — Holy Cross, Lakeview and Gardens of Rest in that order—where memorial rites will be held at the graves of the veterans.

The Memorial Day parade will form at the Junior High School at 9:30 a.m. and will honor Percy Owen, Delta County's only surviving Spanish American War veteran, who will ride in one of the parade's lead cars. With him will be Mayor George Rusch.

The Gold Star Mothers and Delta County Queen Geraldine LaFleur will be among others riding in the parade that will include massed colors, march-

Recognition Day Banquet To Be Held At School

Use of the commons at the Escanaba Area Public High School for the evening of July 11 and the Chicago & North Western Railway Recognition Banquet has been approved by the board of education.

Approximately 600 persons will dine there at a banquet to be served under the direction of Ted Breitenbach, hot lunch manager for the Area schools.

The request for the use of the facility and Mr. Breitenbach's services at the civic event was made by the Recognition Day and Ore Centennial arrangements committee.

George Embs of the Amvets will be master of ceremonies at the bandshell program, with the Rev. Orville Butts of the Salvation Army giving the invocation and benediction. Mayor Rusch will speak and the Gold Star ritual will be presented by Mrs. Homer Dupont. Herbert Johnson is in charge of the VFW ritual and Mrs. Wilfred Doucette, VFW Auxiliary president, the Auxiliary ritual.

Tribute to the nation's war dead at sea will be given in a ritual with acting chaplain Lucille Cholger, 14th District president of the VFW Auxiliary in charge. Color bearers will be Florence Tebear, Lorraine Lueneburg, Betty Anzalone and Mary St. Jacques. A wreath will be placed on the water in memory of the sailor dead.

Earlier in the afternoon — at 1 p.m. — the VFW ritual team will raise the flag in ceremonies at the Little League diamond.

Briefly Told

Traffic court summons have been issued by Escanaba police to Robert R. Brault, Mounted Route, and to Dorothy B. Erickson, 703 Dakota, Gladstone, both for speeding.

Escanaba firemen were called to the A. J. Schmeltzer home, 1122 10th Ave. S., at 1:10 p.m. Wednesday when a washing machine motor burned out.

Personal income in 1963 was $463 billion, $20.9 billion above 1962, the publication, Finance Facts, reports.

Relations With Russia Getting Better, Worse

in 1948 as a result of cold war incidents.

Source Of Irritation
The most important provision of the pact, in the U.S. view, is a commitment by each government to give official notice within three days of the arrest of a citizen of the other, and to permit officials to visit the person arrested within four days of seizure.

Soviet failure to notify the United States promptly of the arrest of American citizens has been a major source of irritation, one dramatic incident being the seizure last year of Prof. Frederick C. Barghoorn. That case was finally straightened out only after the personal intervention of the late President John F. Kennedy.

Typical of the double-sided nature of U.S.-Soviet affairs at present is the fact that, at almost the same hour that Johnson was announcing the consular pact, a spokesman at the State Department was deploring the prospective shipment of Soviet arms to Cyprus.

Arms Deal Dangerous

An arms deal between the Cyprus government, controlled by the island's Greek majority, and the Soviet Union has been rumored for about two weeks. U.S. officials obviously believe the reports are true, and they fear the possibility of new violence between the Greek population and the Turkish minority.

The most serious source of current tension between the world's two major powers, however, is the crisis in Southeast Asia. Faced with Communist offensives in both Laos and South Viet Nam, the United States has been employing all kinds of diplomatic pressures to persuade Red China and Communist North Viet Nam to stop the fighting in Laos, and to realize the dangers of an expanded war in Viet Nam.

Privately, officials said the United States had really got no help from the Soviets in its efforts to bring the crisis under control. On the contrary, they noted a sharpening turn in Soviet propaganda, coupled with warnings against a greater U.S. intervention in the area.

Tension Over Cuba

Other sources of tension include continuing Soviet support for Cuba as a Communist beachhead in the Western Hemisphere. In fact, given the possibility of some Cuban action against U.S. reconnaissance planes, many authorities here still see the situation in the Caribbean as a potential powderkeg.

The parallel trend of improved relations dates from the Cuban missile crisis in the fall of 1962. As the great powers backed away from the confrontation that had carried the world seemingly to the edge of nuclear war, there were many statements from both Soviet and American leaders that steps must be taken urgently to strengthen the prospects for peace.

The first of the agreements that resulted was an agreement to open up a "hot line" between Washington and Moscow, so that in any future crisis the men with the power of decision could communicate with speed and secrecy.

Wheat Deal Cited

The next major development was the successful negotiation in signing of a treaty imposing a limited ban on the testing of nuclear weapons.

One of the more concrete achievements of the series of negotiations which have gone on since the Cuban missile crisis, was last fall's U.S.-Soviet wheat deal. Under this agreement, the United States has sold the Soviet Union 1.7 million tons of badly needed wheat.

Authorities here also cite as an evidence of declining East-West tension the parallel actions taken last month by President Johnson and Premier Khrushchev in announcing a cutback in the production of nuclear explosives.

Most officials here think the trend toward improving relations has been both helped and hindered by the Soviet split with Red China and the resulting rivalry between Moscow and Peking for leadership of the Communist parties around the world.

Undoubtedly, the split has caused Khrushchev to reassess his relations with the West, in the light of the fact that the Soviet Union is caught up in a cold war on two fronts. It is assumed here that the long Soviet border with Red China is a source of constant concern to Moscow strategists.

At the same time, U.S. experts say, because of the competition for Communist leadership, Khrushchev must strike out against the United States and other Western powers on some issues since failure to do so would yield advantage to the Chinese.

Since 1947-1949 costs for all consumer items have risen 29 per cent, but food has risen only 22 per cent. Rents are up 45 per cent and medical care 67 per cent.

Students Visit Ancient Indian Cliff Paintings

Delta County's ancient Indian paintings on the rocks near the Burnt Bluff caves were visited recently by anthropology students of Bay de Noc Community College, many of whom had heard of the celebrated "Indian mystery" paintings but had never seen them.

Leading and lecturing the group on the field trip was Hani Fakhouri, teacher of sociology and anthropology at Bay College. The paintings, made centuries ten, representing Queen Elizabeth II, were among the first to arrive at New Delhi.

Throngs Follow Nehru's Body To Funeral Pyre

Other early arrivals were Soviet First Deputy Premier Alexei Kosygin and Mrs. Sirimavo Bandaranaike, prime minister of Ceylon.

U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk, representing President Johnson, was scheduled to arrive several hours after the start of the funeral procession.

As expressions of regret poured in from around the world, Nehru's body lay in state on the front porch of the prime minister's residence.

Weeping mourners flocked to the residence, and by dawn police estimated that 400,000 had come to pay their last respects. As they passed the body, most mourners folded their hands at the chest in prayerful gesture. The wealthy threw elaborate floral wreaths at Nehru's feet, the poor tossed petals.

The body lay on a polished teakwood table guarded by tall, bearded Sikh soldiers and sailors.

Stones Pelt Train

At Nagpur, in central India, a crowd of 10,000 held up an express train bound for New Delhi until officials put extra cars on. Those left behind pelted the train with stones, injuring passengers, an engineer and his assistants.

Amid the messages of condolence came one from Communist China, which defeated India in a brief, undeclared border war in 1962. Premier Chou Enlai's message cited the bonds of friendship between the people of India and China, despite differences between the nations.

Amid the speculation about Nehru's ultimate successor, most observers believed acting Prime Minister Nanda would be replaced soon after official mourning for Nehru ends on June 8.

Nanda, 63, the Home Minister, was sworn in as Nehru's interim successor Wednesday because he was the senior member of the Cabinet. The rest of the Cabinet agreed to stay in office as a caretaker government.

Nehru, who had served as one of India's leaders for four decades and its only prime minister since independence in 1947, made no provision for a successor to govern India's 470 million people.

4-H Members Plan Summer Projects At Rock

ROCK — The Rock 4-H club members have a busy summer ahead of them with community improvement projects on the agenda in addition to the regular club projects. This year the club has included other community organizations in the community improvement activities.

Last spring the club began community improvement by spading up an area for three small flower beds in the center of Rock. Members bought the flowers, planted and cared for them. Members also painted litter barrels. As a result of all this activity, the club entered a Flower and Garden contest last fall and won a second place award. For this it received three rose bushes from Jackson and Perkins Co.

Members contacted Martin Kaminen in regard to getting some mugho pine to plant with the rose bushes. Kaminen doleeders planted two rose bush-nated four pine. Members and es and two pine by the Rock Post Office and two pine and one rose bush by the Lions club house. Working on this landscaping project were Pamela and Debra Sharkey, Tina Mankiewicz, Cheryl Larson, Susan Koski, Nancy Weldrum and leaders, Mrs. John Larson, Mrs. Victor Mankiewicz and Mrs. Albert Weldrum.

In regard to the flower beds, the club approached the Lions in regard to enlarging the area for flowers. Several of the Lions spaded up additional space. The Lions and the Maple Ridge Township offered to pay for the purchase of the flowers needed for this area. It will be the responsibility of the club members to care for them. Members also cleaned up the area around the flower beds.
